ENOUGH CONNECTICUT PEACHES FOR HOME CONSUMPTION.

Crop Below Normal, But Will Take Care of Home Market.

The peach crop in Connecticut this fall will not be large, is the report from the peach growers. It is thought that the yield will be just enough for the people of this state and that there will be no need of looking for a market outside. Last year, with the big crop, there was a search for markets, and peach speculators were run to New York many mornings.

In Gloucester, picked, last year there went out from that town in baskets. The yield of 1,500 baskets will be mostly from the orchards of the several Italian growers. The big share of J. H. Hale will yield few baskets.

In Wallingford there will be a fair crop. In Middletown the crop will be short, and in other peach towns the yield will not be large.

The cause of the short crop is the extremely cold winter in January last. For several days the thermometer was very low and thousands of the peach buds were frozen and blasted. The peaches now in the market are from Georgia, where the season began in May. It will not be until early August. There is a bumper crop in that state.

INDEPENDENCE PROGRAMME

Given at Meeting of Xens—Annual Picnic Will Be at Gardner Lake.

The Xens society held its regular meeting Friday evening. Mrs. Herbert Wiley, the president, presided. Following the regular meeting a discussion was held upon the annual outing of the society. It was voted that the society should hold their picnic at Gardner Lake Tuesday, July 30th. Two names were proposed for membership. After adjourning the society a programme was given, taking the nature of Independence day, which was as follows: Reading, The Independence Bell, Mrs. Hattie Sargent, reading, The Declaration of Independence, Miss Martha Ward; game, Tests of States and Cities; game, What Will You Do for Your Country; and a number of readings were well given by Mrs. Avery Park.

A host of charities presented by Jacob Starkweather closed a very enjoyable evening.

SENATE PROVIDES FOR TWO NEW BATTLESHIPS.

Alabama Senator Would Restrict Powers to One New Ship a Year.

Washington, July 5.—The naval appropriation bill, carrying $133,493,774, and two battleship provisions, was passed by the senate today. It now goes to conference. The bill provides for the construction of two new battleships, and the naval increase programme and other amendments.

It threatened a lively contest in the senate. The John B. Calhoun of Alabama proposed a sub-provision for one battleship and gave notice that he would propose, when the bill came to the senate, to amend the bill so as to deny the use of the canal to all nations which do not agree to build only one battleship a year. He said the United States should end the wasteful battleship competition with Europe by entering into treaties with them to cease building such vessels. The John B. Calhoun of Alabama proposed a sub-provision for one battleship and gave notice that he would propose, when the bill came to the senate, to amend the bill so as to deny the use of the canal to all nations which do not agree to build only one battleship a year. A SUDDEN CONFERENCE.

Roosevelt Aids at Oyster Bay, But Colonel Is Retiree.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 5.—Several of Colonel Roosevelt's aides gathered at Sagamore Hill tonight for a conference about which there was some mystery. The colonel was in the midst of a tennis game when an automobile whirled up from New York. Modest McCormack of Chicago, Senator Dixon of Montana and George W. Perkins and George R. Stoddard of New York climbed aboard. The tennis game was ended abruptly and Colonel Roosevelt made his way to the house.

When he was asked in regard to the conference the colonel was unusually reticent.

"I'd rather not say anything about it," he said.

C. J. Hamlin of Buffalo, whom Colonel Roosevelt described as a leader of the Roosevelt progressives in Buffalo, was also here today.

The former president said that his platform would be ready in a week or so. He had received letters from several prominent men who were prominent in his campaign for the republican presidential nomination and were reported to have left him since the Chicago convention. They told him, he said, that they were with him despite reports to the contrary. He thought that others who "fopped" acted prematurely and that before long some of them would want to come back again.

Colonel Roosevelt said that some confusion has been caused by misinterpretation of statements by his supporters that they saw no need of a new party. That did not mean, he asserted, that they had forsaken him.

"In Kansas, for instance," he said, "they take the stand that the Roosevelt supporters are the republican organization and there is no reason for abandoning it. They will simply name Roosevelt electors on the regular republican ticket."

Mrs. Mary Link, who died in Dunkirk, aged 90, is survived by five sons, three daughters, 31 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.
